

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has been very effective. I received as many as fifteen telemarketing calls per day. That is reduced to one or two per week. This has been a real blessing in my daily life. Please don't do anything to lessen the protection we now have.